Narrow Escape of the R R Depot.

As we were getting ready to go to press esterday afternoon, between one and two clock, an slarm of fire was sounded, and a uge volume of smoke was seen rising from the direction of the Railroad Depot. The fire proved to be at the extensive Stave and Barrel Factory of Messre. JUNE & BUCKLAND. which is located near the Depot of the C. & T. R. R. When the fire was first discovered among the shavings on the floor it could have been put out easily if sufficient water could have been promptly secured, but that was impossible, and the flames spread rapidly and soon gained irresistible headway among the light, dry materials. A strong wind was blowing from the south-west, and vailing. In less than an hour the extensive orks were entirely destroyed. ORIGIN OF THE FIRE.

The fire started from a spark from the comotive of the train on the Lake Erie & Louisville R. R. It was discovered in a short time, but the spark had fallen in a pi'e of shavings, and the flames shot off like lightning.

Schuszer, the Propri stor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assu-med its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians prosounced his case incurable, when he commenced th use of this simple butpowerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptom quickly disappeared, andhis present weight is nore than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention ex alusively to the curs of Consumption, and the disuses which are usually complicated with it, and the ures effected by his medicines have been very nunerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schunck makes prof-retonal visits to several of the larger citie weekly, where he has a three concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptive that have to be lifted out of their carriages, an a a few mouths healthy, robust persons. Du HENCE'S Pulmonic Syrup, Scameed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills are generally required in our Consumption.
